

Dayu Nirma Amurwanti

Dayu Nirma Amurwanti is currently a Faculty Member at International Relations Department, Bina Nusantara University and a Program Advisor for Climate and Forest at the Royal Norwegian Embassy.

Prior to that Ms Amurwanti is a Senior Institutions Specialist for the Environment Team and Operations Officer for the Country Management Unit at the World Bank, Climate Finance Manager at Partnership Governance Reform and Counsel for Rahayu and Partners and Millenium Challenge Account Indonesia (MCAI).

Ms Amurwanti has a degree on Finance from and Master of Business Law from University of Indonesia, and Master of Science on Public Management and Governance from London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE). She is also a founder and board member for Chevening Alumni Association dan LSE Alumni Association Indonesia.

Program Advisor, Climate and Forest, Royal Norwegian Embassy

2019 – present

Ms Amurwanti's portfolio covers climate finance, green growth, private sector engagement and palm oil, and relations with multilateral institutions.

Faculty Member, International Relations, Bina Nusantara University

2014 – present

Ms Amurwanti teaches and carries out research on contemporary global issues, international political economy, environment and climate change, gender, and international trade.

Senior Institutions Specialist, the World Bank Office Jakarta

2018-2019

Ms Amurwanti was part of small team performing institutional analysis to operationalize an integrated forest and land fire management system. She was responsible for reviewing current and proposed vision, legal and regulatory framework relevant to fire prevention and coordination.

Climate Finance Manager, Partnership for Governance Reform

2016-2018

Ms Amurwanti provides support for relevant Ministries in conducting stakeholders' engagement to ensure that governance of Indonesian Environment Fund is meeting statutory requirements, able to deliver effective programs, is transparent and accountable.

Legal Advisor, Millennium Challenge Account Indonesia

2016

Ms Amurwanti provided support in analysing, reviewing and drafting legal documents for MCAI, including in formulating procedures for asset transfer, for flow of funds, and establish formal cooperation with various entities.

Senior Counsel, Rahayu and Partners

2015-2016

Ms Amurwanti specialized in infrastructure and the public sector, and provides support to analysing dispute settlements by government entities, operationalizing land acquisition and public private partnership regulations for state owned enterprises.

Operations Officer, the World Bank

2007 – 2015

Ms Amurwanti began her career at the bank by providing due diligence support, and risk analysis related to fraud, corruption, and governance issues. At the Country Management Unit, Ms Amurwanti then provided political economic analysis for the Bank's strategic engagement to Indonesia.