

○Speakers

1. Toshiyuki Sakamoto, Board Member, Director, The Institute of Energy Economics (Japan)
2. Dr. Christopher Len, Senior Research Fellow at Energy Studies Institute, National University of Singapore (Singapore)
3. Pamela Simamora, Policy and Advocacy Manager at New Energy Nexus (Indonesia)

○Moderator

Agus Praditya Tampubolon - Clean, Affordable, and Secure Energy (CASE) for Southeast Asia Project Manager, Institute for Essential Services (IESR) (Indonesia)

○Program (Japan Time)

- 16:00~16:05 Welcoming Remarks, Dr. Dino Patti Djalal, Founder and Chairman of FPCI
16:05~16:10 Opening Remarks, Prof. Kunihiko Shinoda, GRIPS
16:10~17:00 Moderated Discussion
17:00~17:25 Q&A Session
17:25~17:30 Closing

○ Points to be discussed

- The 2022 review of global energy security and energy supply chain.
- The position and response of Japan and ASEAN on global energy markets and clean energy development.
- Can ASEAN and Japan diversify their energy sources?
- What should be the path to a new energy policy to achieve short-term goals toward carbon neutrality